

Build Process

Build process includes the following steps:

- Compiling Java code in the source path of a module and placing results to the output path.
- Compiling Java code in the test path of a module and placing results to the test output path.
- Creating copies of the resource files in the output path.
- Reporting problems in the Messages tool window.

With IntelliJ IDEA you can build your applications using Ant or Maven.

See Also

Concepts:

- Ant
- Maven

Reference:

- Ant Build Tool Window
- Maven Projects Tool Window

Web Resources:

- Developer Community 