

Folding and Expanding Custom Blocks

Custom code blocks can be represented either by an arbitrary selection, or code constructs not marked with the folding toggles (for example, `if` or `while`).

To fold an arbitrary selected block

1. Select contiguous fragment of code in the editor.
2. On the main menu, choose Code | Folding | Fold Selection / Remove Region, or press Ctrl+Period

See Also

Procedures:

- Folding and Expanding Code Blocks
- Viewing Contents
- Folding Custom Regions with Line Comments

Getting Started:

- Selecting Text in the Editor

Web Resources:

- Developer Community 