

Google App Engine Facet Page

File | Project Structure | Modules - module - Google App Engine facet

Use this page to view and change Google App Engine facet settings.

In this section:

- General Facet Settings
- Basic Settings
- Advanced Settings

Item	Description
Path to Google App Engine SDK installation directory	Specify the path to the directory where Google App Engine SDK for Java  is installed.
App Engine account	In this section, specify your Google account credentials.
Run Enhancer for the following classes and packages on make	If this check box is selected, the <code>datanucleusenhance</code> step will be executed after each <code>make</code>. Use Add and Remove buttons to specify the classes and packages to be processed by the enhancer. By default, the state of this check box corresponds to the facet settings made on creating the Google App Engine project.
Persistence	This field shows persistence type defined on creating the Google App Engine project . You can select a different one from the drop-down list. Selected persistence type defines which particular enhancer will be used on compilation.